Transitions: Dealing with Change from the Inside Out We all know that change is one of the few constants in life as we deal with non-stop change at work and any number of personal changes that life brings us. With all the external changes we face this program offers insight into an internal road map to better understand our psychological adjustment to change. Helping ourselves and others as we cope with the transitions involved in change is the focus for this two part program. Based on the work of William Bridges (Transitions: Making Sense of Life's Changes) tips are offered to let go of old patterns with a homework assignment between the two sessions.	2	Flip Chart
Sharon Cox 615 371-8375	esharoncox@aol.com		Renewal, Replenishing, and Refreshing the Spirit Within Given the stresses of life and the ease with which we all lose sight of our need for self care and balance this program offers practical ways to keep ourselves in a better place emotionally. Areas of discussion include spiritual disciplines, the healing power of nature, mindfulness and the importance of gratitude. The intent is to offer ideas for next day use and ways to sustain personal change.	1	Flip Chart

John Gregory  615 804-5109	johnwillisgregory@gmail.com	My family is at least six generation Methodist. I have taught Sunday School classes for over 30 years. My father and mother were teachers and I have found teaching to be an excellent way for me to study the bible and explore various theological views along my faith journey. My wife ,Olivia, and I live in Franklin and enjoy worshiping at BUMC. My career is in banking and I work as an officer of Renasant Bank on West End Avenue in Nashville. Olivia and I are members of the Crossroads class. I ascribe to Wesley's quadrilateral: scripture, tradition, reason, and experience. I believe God is love and is best understood through the incarnation. The compassion of Jesus , his servanthood and ultimate sacrifice for all lead me as a disciple. "The grace of God means something like : Here is your life. You might never have been, but you are because the party wouldn't been complete without you." Frederick Buechner	God Isn't Angry (Seeking God) What is our understanding of God? What shaped it? Discussion of the Wesleyan view of creation, harmony, separation, redemption and restoration. Emphasis is on God's grace and love and the desire for relationship with all people. Drawing on scripture and the writings of Buechner , Rohr, Taylor, and Bell.	2	Flip Chart

I cannot imagine , unless it is that voice crying out in the wilderness, the one you cannot quite make out from here. If we only listen to God in church, we miss half the message. The good news is always beginning somewhere in the world, for those with ears to hear and hearts to go wherever the way may lead." Barbara Brown Taylor "The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. John Gregory 615 804-5109	johnwillisgregory@gmail.com		The Trinity God has often presented and unnderstood as a far off and static monarch. The earliest church father called it perichoresis or "divine circle dance". This lesson will draw on Fr. Richard Rohr's The Divine Dance.	1	Flip Chart or White Board

Joe Malone  615 595-6308	ulifeprep@gmail.com	Joe Malone holds a Ph.D. in Health and Human Performance with a minor in neuropsychology and a specialization in relational wellness. He has taught for many years at Middle Tennessee State University and guest lectured at Vanderbilt University. Dr. Malone served on the Centers for Disease Control Initiative for STD Prevention for the state of Tennessee. He is also a co-author of the new book Battles of the Sexes. Joe is the former Chair of the Nashville Community Health and Wellness Team and the current Topic Network Chair for Health Promotion for The Society for the Study of Emerging Adulthood http://ssea.org/. He and his family first created a Christian-based wellness program for BUMC back in 1999. Joe has had the honor of working with young adults on their well-being for over 25 years. In his teaching, Dr. Malone has employed a background of varied life experiences which include Division I football coach and player, fitness professional, and celebrity trainer as well as professional modeling. He has personally made use of the research, insights, and experience that inspired Battles of the Sexes and has had his SEX IQ raised to improve, preserve, and protect his over-40-year marriage to his wife, Jody. Dr. Malone and Jody make their home near their children and grandchildren in Franklin, TN.	CHRISTIAN SEX IQ: Smarter Sexuality through Understanding Human Sexual Nature CHRISTIAN SEX IQ takes a scripturally and scientifically-based look at relationships between adult females and males and gives them insight into how and why sex differences have developed and their profound effects on their entire lives. It helps men and women understand their own sexual nature and that of the opposite sex and develop sexual empathy for them. It gives discernment into the mismatch both sexes have to endure between our rapidly changing culture and our inherited nature and the resulting battles both have to fight. Its goal is to raise SEX IQ in order to lower sexual conflict and empower long-term romantic love. Dr. Malone examines related scriptures and the underlying brain chemistry and physiology as well as sociology and psychology in an attempt to help both males and females gain deep insights into the drives that fuel many of their relationship decisions. Healthy relationships are crucial to living a great Christian life and understanding yourself and others better biologically can help greatly clarify what you are looking for from somebody else in relationships. This Circuit Rider lesson may be particularly important for classes with parents of young children, middle schoolers, high schoolers and even college students.	3	Laptop, Multimedia Cart

Ten Ways to Love "Ten Ways to Love" is a survey of the Ten Commandments, taught by a practicing lawyer. Steve Schaffer  615 332-4205	s1548@hotmail.com	Steve maintains a focus on examining how contemporary social issues sometimes compete with our Christian faith. The son of an Episcopal minister who was deeply engaged in the civil rights movement marching with Martin Luther King, Steve grew up heavily influenced by his father's passion for social justice, helping the disenfranchised, and working on behalf of the poor. For nearly 9 years Steve has mentored death row prisoners at the Riverbend Maximum Security Prison. His willingness to carefully approach 'hot-button' contemporary issues is one of his gifts and talents. Steve's professional experience comes from nearly 30 years as a studio musician (over 8,000 record albums) and producer, and his nearly 20 years in corporate / enterprise healthcare technology retiring from his position as Sr. Project Manager Enterprise Infrastructure. Steve Schaffer 615 332-4205	s1548@hotmail.com	Based upon the following two books:  	The Dead Sea Scrolls Christianity as you and I know it and were taught did NOT come from James, John and Peter in Jerusalem. The scrolls reveal an entirely new story! There was the discovery... There was intrigue and deception... There was war... There is a treasure list... There were revelations... A fascinating look at what was contained in the scrolls and what they mean to us today. Their importance cannot be underestimated. Controversies and misunderstanding continue even 70 years after their discovery! This study is based upon two very popular books on the topic: Kenneth Hanson's The Dead Sea Scrolls - the Untold Story , and Baigent and Leigh's The Dead Sea Scrolls Deception . The scrolls simultaneously affirm, reveal, and challenge us to broaden our concepts of Jesus, John the Baptist, St. Paul, and others, and so much of the scrolls' content is validated by historians of the time like Pliny and Josephus. This study ties together the Essenes, Hasidics, Sadducees, Pharisees, Zealots, Masada and so much of what was happening in a short 300 year time period. We were never taught what the scrolls revealed.	2	Multi-media Presentation and Discussion

How do we cope? To even begin our search for answers, we must first gather facts, evaluate, and make moral decisions (hopefully) based upon a framework of logic, religion and our faith. Jesus never knew.... • Splitting the Atom • Genetically Modified Organisms (designer babies?) • Patenting genes – Literal ownership of lifeforms • Ransoming lifesaving drugs and medicines • Environmental Disaster (e.g. Climate Change) ...and countless others. Jesus would want us to courageously and prayerfully consider such questions. Steve Schaffer 615 332-4205	s1548@hotmail.com	Based upon the acclaimed documentary film: 	End of Life - The Right to Die – Death With Dignity Suddenly it's a hot button issue across America with 'Baby Boomers' in their later years and new legal questions arise. • What does our Book of Discipline say? • Is this doctor assisted suicide, or is it doctor assisted surrender of life back to God? • What is happening elsewhere in our country? • What if you had to face this decision with a loved one? • Is there a moral conflict within the Hippocratic Oath? There exists a growing public awareness in America that some individuals with terminal conditions experience unfathomable pain and exorbitant financial burdens to their families. Some would choose an alternative to their own prolonged natural death. Any of us may be faced one day with considering such an option. This is a challenging look to understand both practical and spiritual realities.	1	Discussion
Steve Schaffer 615 332-4205	s1548@hotmail.com		The Sin of Mixing Politics and Religion It is often said that two things that should never be discussed at dinner are politics and religion. Jesus might argue the opposite that our politics should be led by the illumination of his teachings. Can we gather the courage to politely broach this topic together? • Should Politics and Religion be kept separate? • How does separation of church and state apply? • What is the Church's role? Not to politically persuade one way or another, but to raise awareness of where we might seek guidance, patience, common ground and civility by engaging in prayerful discourse in an increasingly divided world.	1	Discussion
Steve Schaffer 615 332-4205	s1548@hotmail.com	Based upon the following the biography: 	The Life and Times of John Wesley • John Wesley had doubts...as well as conviction • What was going on in the church at that time? • How did his family relationships shape his life? • How his spirituality sometimes ruined relationships • His real-life story shows how an ordinary man suffered amazing rejection but managed to change the world. Based upon the popular biography by Stephen Tomkins, you won't believe how much he was like us. Wesley had his 'issues', but he had vision and courage that you won't believe! This is not a theological series - it's a real life story you'll find fascinating.	3	Multi-media Presentation and Discussion

Kathy Sherrod  615 351-4410	ksherrod@comcast.net	Kathryn B. Sherrod, PhD, earned her degree in 1972. She is a licensed clinical psychologist. In her 40-year career, she has published 23 articles, written books, and taught several graduate courses in psychology. She has lectured on various topics and has provided consultation to various groups. She works with individuals, couples, and families, helping them improve their patterns of communication in relationships	I wrote this 12-week study after attending various 12-step programs with clients. Every time I went to a 12-step program, I learned something. I wanted to share the 12 steps with Christians who would probably not attend a 12-step program because they do not have a problem with alcohol or any other specific addiction. In my view, all of us Christians are addicted to being human, which means that we continue to make questionable choices. Sometimes we just drift rather than intentionally making choices at all. A 12 step program is about us learning to look at ourselves in the mirror. While viewing ourselves in the mirror, we have an opportunity to notice what we see without assigning shame or blame. If we are straightforward about who we really are, we are more likely to make the changes we want to make. For many people, working through the 12 steps allows us to walk down pathway to peace and to develop a clearer connection to God.	12

Dan Spatz  615 972-2843	daniel.spatz@gmail.com	Dan's entire career has been invested in various forms of feeding people. It has been a journey with twists and turns. After initially feeding needy populations through work at Catholic Relief Services, Dan turned to building new markets for chocolate and pet food for the Mars Corporation in Russia. Along that route, God intervened with knowledge and wisdom about the nutritional and healing purpose of food in our lives. This inspired a parallel journey converting his wife, three children and other family members onto a plant based diet. With understanding growing about the risks and traps involved in our "modern" food culture and systems, Dan and his wife, Nadia, purchased a culinary herb farm near Nashville in 2012. The mission at Healthy Flavors is to "spread the word" about naturally and nutritiously flavoring foods vs. overusing salt, fat and sugar as practiced today. In 2013, the family began attending BUMC, which imbued understanding, inspired discipline and increased investment in Christian values and practices. Dan began to develop a framework for interpreting the Christian experience and articulating a new vision of how health and nutrition could be applied to strengthen the Body of Christ. These roads – winding through charity, commercial enterprise, farming, faith and family – along with a passion for helping people improve their lives, give Dan broad perspective and many experiences to share in raising awareness about the future of health and wellness in our society. CJ Stevens-Pino  727 215-9324	cjpino@earthlink.net	CJ Stevens-Pino has been a member of Brentwood UMC since April, 2015. She and her spouse, Marsha, have travelled in music ministry since 2001, ministering in large and small congregations throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico, carrying a message of inclusive love for marginalized communities. Averaging over 250 engagements per year while in fulltime ministry, CJ has acquired extensive experience in hands on, life changing ministry. She has been instrumental in helping many mainstream denominational churches begin the journey of inclusiveness. With over 18 years in active church ministry CJ brings a grass roots perspective to the issues churches face when struggling to create an inclusive and welcoming experience. CJ will share her personal experience of growing up in a Roman Catholic Church, in a small New Jersey town in the 1960's. She speaks of the struggles she faced when confronting her own sexuality at a very young age, in a family that she believed would reject her, and a denomination that would not accept her. You will hear how CJ learned that God had a plan for her, and how the unconditional love of a father and mother brought a fractured family life back to unity. A question and answer period will be included in this session, giving participants an opportunity to probe the difficult subject of dealing with homosexuality.	TOPIC: The focus of this presentation is to bring relevant information to BUMC classes regarding the impact of language we use as it relates to homosexuality and the church. With the current discussions and debates arising from the February, 2019 General Conference vote, it becomes even more important to gain an understanding of the damage that can arise when someone feels they might not be able to live fully into their faith, or they may not be able to fully participate in the life of the church. Agenda 1. Understand how issues of sexual identity shaped the course of a young life. Listen to a real life perspective from the point of view of a child facing issues of sexuality and coming out. 2. How reactions of family, loved ones and the church can make a difference between life and death when a child or other family member comes out. 3. Where to find resources when you faced with a loved one coming out.	1

We live in a time where the very purpose and meaning of rituals is in a type of crisis. The famous thinker Eric Erickson said "Without participation in rituals or the appropriation of the elements which it mediates, the human person faces psychological conflict, personality impairment, and estrangement from the inner self and outer society. Neither individuals nor communities can survive psychologically without ritual." This lesson will explore the meaning, purpose and significance of rituals. Rituals are indeed one major method that Christianity conveys its message.	1

Todd W. Van Beck 404 909-1829	toddvanbeck@gmail.com		"The Exposition of Christianity" In the first four Christian centuries the religions of the Roman Empire came under assault by those proposing a new faith, declaring that only the worship of the God of Jesus could be considered the true religion. This lesson presents that fascinating account of how approximately 20 first Christians and their mission to take the Great Commission of Jesus Christ very seriously resulted in a mere four centuries later of a Christian population of approximately 45 million human beings. The lesson begins with the Great Commission, explore the missionary journeys of Paul, the conversion of Constantine, and ends by presenting 10 practical common sense reasons why Christianity got such a foothold on the human race .	1
