

Holy Week

OUTDOOR STATIONS OF THE CROSS

March 29, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., on the front lawn

Stations of the Cross allows us to better understand Jesus' journey to the cross and prepares our hearts for Easter. This is an experience built for all ages that illustrates the events leading up to Jesus' death and resurrection.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

March 29, 7 p.m., Sanctuary + Online

Good Friday services follow a tradition dating back to the Eighth Century, commemorating the final hours of our Lord's life on earth before dying on the cross. The Chancel Choir will sing movements from "Return to Me: A Choral Service Based on the Stations of the Cross" by Terry W. York and Taylor Scott Davis. Worship with us in person or online as we remember Christ's final days on Earth. Childcare will be available for 8 weeks to 3 years.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Dr. Davis Chappell

Leader: Welcome to you who call upon the name of Christ. We gather tonight to recall the story of the night Jesus was betrayed. Are you prepared to come to the feast of Jesus, the Christ, whose life was poured out for you?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Leader: Are you able to watch with Jesus at prayer in the garden – indeed, to struggle yourselves to be in unity with God’s will for you?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Leader: Then let us praise God, even in this hour of darkness!

People: God of all grace and steadfast love, greatly is Your name to be praised in all the earth
Bring us to this feast of remembrance with open hearts!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION & PARDON

People: Loving Christ, on that night long ago, You knew that Your hour had come. You knew full well what lay ahead of You. Your disciples loved and followed You, but they had also failed You. They would fail You yet again that night, and one would betray You. Yet You washed their feet, as a servant would, even the feet of Your betrayer.

We have also loved and followed You. We have also failed You, and we cannot comprehend the love that You show us, the love that is our example, the love that tells us to do as You have done for us. May we be like You, Master, servants of all. May all see how we long to be Your faithful disciples. May all see how we love each other, just as You have loved us. In Your holy name, we pray.
Amen.

Leader: Now the Son of Man, the One who loves us, is glorified. In Him, God is also glorified. The One who loves us gives us a new commandment: to love one another! As the Lord has loved us, you are to love each other. Brothers and sisters, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Thanks be to God. Amen.

*RESPONSE HYMN

“The Communion Hymn”

COMMUNION

Behold the Lamb who bears our sins away
Slain for us and we remember
The promise made that all who come in faith
Find forgiveness at the cross.

So we share in this bread of life,
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of peace
Around the table of the King.
